

Rocky Mountain Regulatory Affairs Society (RMRAS)

RMRAS is honored to have Tom Warwick, Director of the Denver District, as our speaker on Wednesday, October 28 for the annual RMRAS FDA Update.

Tom began his career with FDA as an Investigator in Denver in 1977, after serving two years with the Peace Corps in the South Pacific. He later served as an Investigator in Salt Lake City, Utah and Resident-In-Charge of the Albuquerque, New Mexico Resident Post. In 1987, he transferred to San Juan, Puerto Rico as a Supervisory Investigatory and later served in the same capacity in Phoenix, Arizona. In 1991, Tom returned to Denver as a Supervisory Investigator and later as a Compliance Officer. In 2004, he transferred to the Minneapolis District Office as Director of Compliance Branch until his return to Denver in March 2008. Tom has a B.S. in Zoology from Colorado State University.

In the past, our members have been able to field questions for the District Director's comments, and Tom has kindly agreed to continue this tradition. Therefore, please send your questions to rmas@themattgrp.com by Wednesday, October 21, and we will forward them to Mr. Warwick.
